“Why Am I Here?”
Genesis 1:1-28; and Psalm 96:1-13

If someone asked you today, “Why are you here?” How would you respond?

Genesis gives us the answer to the questions, “Who created everything and why?” Read Genesis 1 slowly. What stands out for you?

Read Genesis 1:26-28. I was created to carry the _____ of God.

Can you give an example of how that truth was displayed in your life this week?

How does that truth affect my perspective of my life and how I view others?

God’s purpose in creation was to demonstrate His _____.

Read Psalm 96:1-10.

How does this psalm change my view of the place and purpose of worship in my life?

Why does our worship of God matter to the world?

God’s glory is revealed in _____.

Read Psalm 96:11-13 and Psalm 19.

Why does God choose to reveal himself in different ways?

How have I seen God’s glory in creation?

God’s glory is revealed in _____.

Read 2 Corinthians 4:1-6 and Hebrews 1:3-4. What does the truth of Jesus being the glory of God mean to me?

How have I proclaimed the glory of Jesus? _____

God chose to place his image in humanity alone. In our lives people should have the greatest glimpse of God’s glory.

This week

How will the truth of God’s image in me change my life, my heart my attitudes?

With whom will I share the truth of God’s glory this week?

Who will I ask to pray with me about God’s glory in my life?
