Sermon Series for February 2022:
"Living Beyond Rebellion"

"Angry Rebellion"
Numbers 20:1-13

What gets you angry?

Numbers 20 takes place almost 40 years after Number 14. The cycle of rebellion of the Israelites has been passed on to the next generation. Read Numbers 20:2-5. What attitudes both good and bad have you passed along to others?

Read Numbers 20:1-5. What failures of faith can you identify in your life which has led to a pattern, moment of sin?

Would others say I focus more on God's promises, or the problems around? What would I say about myself?

Read Numbers 20:6. Can I think of a time when God called me to do something and I chose to respond in a different way? What was the outcome?

Anyone can be _____

Read Numbers 20:6-11. Moses and Aaron both exhibited, _____, _____, and _____.

When have I seen the same characteristics in my life?

Rebellion is _____.

Read Number 20:11-13. God is still _____ when I am _____?

God will move His _____ forward, with or without _____.

In the face of my rebellion, God's _____ still provides what I need. (Ephesians 2:8,9)

In the face of my rebellion God still provides _____. (Numbers 20:12)

God's name will never be _____ (Numbers 20:13).

This week:

In what area of your life are you struggling today in unfaithfulness to God?

What can you do today to help someone love and follow Jesus in faith?
